My dear Bro' John

I was glad to hear today of the telegram received by Lorie last-evening telling us of your safe arrival in New-York. Welcome home from Europe & your childhoods home to Wis. where we were all Boys & Girls together. I would like to be with Mother and the Girls and see you there once more and have a good talk with them all but as that cannot be I will just "bide a wee" in this corner of the vineyard till you reach California and the Home-Nest. & then rejoice with ~~you~~ and yours that the Good Lord has watched over you & brought you to us again in safety through so many seen & unseen dangers.

The folks are all pretty well though Lorie has had quite a hard time with Neuralgia.

Everybody interested is hard at-work among the grapes. Love to Mother & Sisters, affectionately
Maggie
